

Handwritten notes and charts on the wall above the projector screen.

The projector screen displays a diagram with a stick figure in the center. To the left of the figure is the text "83-00". Above the figure are three labels: "A" with a circle around it, "B" with a circle around it, and "C" with a circle around it. A red circle with a diagonal slash is positioned at the top left of the screen.
